Mardi Gras Day, Tuesday, March 4, 2025, is not a federal holiday. Regular hours will be observed at all locations except the Centralized Examination Station [CES] which will be closed due to parade traffic. If the Container Terminals are open, CBP will be on site to staff the Radiation Portal Monitors [RPMs]. Additional information on Port Operations including the Marine Division for the two weekends before Mardi Gras, and on Mardi Gras Day, will be disseminated via a separate Southern Currents.

Airport and Seaport Operations:

- U.S. Customs and Border Protection's Port of New Orleans Airport and Seaport passenger processing and vessel boarding operations observe regular hours on federal holidays.

- The Marine Division, to include Vessel Entrance and Clearance System [VECS] transactions, is CLOSED on federal holidays.
- The Centralized Examination Station (CES) is closed on federal holidays.
- The Radiation Portal Monitors (RPMs) follow the Terminal Operator's schedule on federal holidays. If the terminal is open, CBP staffs the RPMs. If the terminal is closed, CBP does not staff the RPMs.

Outlying CBP Ports of Entry:

- The Port of Morgan City observes regular hours on federal holidays.
- The Ports of Baton Rouge, Lake Charles and Shreveport are open for specific services via appointment on federal holidays. Requests for services on a federal holiday should be made by contacting the port office on the business day preceding the federal holiday.
- The Port of Gramercy is closed on federal holidays. Requests for services should be directed to the Port of New Orleans Operations Desk.
